

Purpose

The purpose of this scholarship is to assist revenue integrity professionals by enhancing their careers with further education and to increase collaboration among their colleagues by sharing knowledge.

Criteria

Applicants must be active in the revenue cycle or revenue integrity field and have at least one year of experience in the revenue cycle or revenue integrity field. For the purposes of this scholarship, revenue cycle or revenue integrity may include experience in a dedicated revenue integrity department or any revenue cycle department, including, but not limited to, compliance, coding, HIM, business office, patient financial services, managed care/payer contracting, utilization management/utilization review, denials management, billing, patient access, CDI, etc. This should be supported by the applicant's resume.

Previous NAHRI Scholarship recipients may not reapply for a period of four years. Individuals currently serving on the NAHRI Advisory Board, the NAHRI Networking and Events Committee, and the NAHRI Education Committee are not eligible. Current NAHRI staff are also not eligible.

Scholarships will be awarded on an annual basis and disbursed in June in the form of registration to the annual Revenue Integrity Symposium.

Amount

For 2025, NAHRI will award the following scholarship rewards:

- Registration to the 2026 Revenue Integrity Symposium
 - Monetary value in 2026: $1,299 (not including travel, lodging, or other expenses)

Deadline

The application deadline is Monday, June 8, 2026. The deadline is the date after which applications will no longer be accepted. NAHRI uses the completion date in the online application to determine entry date.

Renewal process

This scholarship is not renewable. Previous scholarship recipients must wait four years before reapplying. (Note: The restrictions on reapplying do not apply to individuals who have not been awarded the scholarship. For example, if an individual applied in 2024 and did not receive the scholarship, they would be able to apply for the scholarship again in 2025.)
